

Stemmers Run Middle School
Summer Reading

Step 1: Read a book either of your choosing or from the attached suggested reading list.

Step 2: After you finish your novel for summer reading, complete ONE of the following projects.

Step 3: Turn in your assignment to your new language arts teacher at the beginning of the school year.

If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Jennings at riennings@bcps.org. More resources can also be found on our Stemmers Run Middle School Webpage.

Create a comic strip with at least 10 pictures and captions depicting the main events of the story. Feel free to be creative with colors and cut outs.	Rewrite the ending of the story. Be sure to include what happened to the main characters. (2-page minimum)	Create a movie trailer for the novel. This can either be drawn out on a story board or a video. You will be able to submit your video to Schoology when you come back to school.
Rewrite part of the novel through a different character's point of view. Begin at the part you think is most exciting, then tell the rest of the story through your character's eyes.		Create a playlist for the novels if it was turned into a movie. There should be a minimum of six songs. Write a summary for each song explaining its connection to the story.
Create a board game based on the novel. Include directions and any pieces needed to play the game.	Write and illustrate a children's book about a major theme represented in your novel. (Another option is to rewrite your novel in the form of a children's book.)	Assemble a collage that represents the major themes and characters of the story. Include a summary explaining how your collage represents those characters and themes.

