EMERGENCY CLOSING OF SCHOOL

If school is closed due to inclement weather, teachers are not required to report to school. It is expected that they will use this time to engage in professional activities such as planning, grading papers, and conferring with parents via telephone.

Unless the school system announces it is closed, all Baltimore County schools are expected to be open on inclement weather days. Twelve-month administrators and clerical personnel are expected to staff the schools. Teachers who are able to come to school safely are welcomed on such days.
